

Here is the next video in the protocol webinar series. This one covers State & Trees, where I talk about how the protocol maintains state, primarily the types of merkle trees that are used, how they are updated and some considerations when designing state management in a privacy preserving way.

[

](<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7Ly4pKZ3UDI>)

This video covers the content in the State section of the protocol specification in the docs.

You can find the previous video on Transaction Execution here.