

“Welcome to the Apecoin Community!”

Our global community is made up of creators, brands, community leaders, degens, developers and small businesses from around the world. We value community involvement and welcome any contributions that can help make our community a better place. As a member of our community, you'll have the opportunity to connect with others who share many hobbies & business interests.

Getting Started

If you're new to the Apecoin forums, welcome! Here are some tips to get started:

- Introduce yourself in the “Introductions” thread.
- Read the forum rules before posting.
- Participate in the proposal process and apply for grants if you're a small business owner.

Developers, creators, & small business owners can participate in the proposal process and apply for grants to help support their project or idea. Here's how it works:

- Develop a clear proposal that outlines your goals, timeline, and budget.
- Submit your proposal to the Apecoin community for consideration.
- If your proposal is approved, you'll receive funding to bring your project to life.

Grants provide funding that can help small businesses cover costs associated with developing and implementing new projects or ideas. By submitting a proposal and receiving funding, small businesses have the opportunity to gain exposure and increase their visibility within the Apecoin community.

Connecting with Others

Connect with other contributors, ranging from small business owners to tech investors and a cast of ever-changing NFT PFPs, ranging from monkey to minotaur. Here's how:

- Visit the Apecoin forums to join discussions and explore the community web links section.
- Attend meetups to network with other members of the community.

We encourage you to take advantage of these opportunities to connect with others and learn from their experiences. Whether you're a developer, small business owner or an NFT collector, Apecoin offers a welcoming and inclusive community where you can connect with others who share your interests.

Community Web Links

Explore our community for web links to discover other contributors and businesses across the ape ecosystem. Please exercise caution and do your own research before engaging with any of the linked websites or individuals.

We hope these tips help you get started and make the most of your time in the Apecoin community. We look forward to hearing from you and seeing your proposals!
