

As for some competent and well-known developers, I think the foundation can take the initiative to attract them, so that the ecological development will become better and better. At present, the ecological development of CELESTIA is stagnant, I think, while other foundations are actively working. I think more work and more cooperation with publicity will make CELESTIA better.