

Thanks for this detailed explanation. Would it be possible to exclude unresolved rounds form the returns calculation? The unresolved rounds make the returns (even the 3 months returns) fluctuate a lot from day to day. This generates unnecessary headache.