

I like the sustainable approach that Banana Bill will be rolling out for ApeChain regarding commercial agreements versus non-repayable grants. I'm curious about what the community thinks about taking a similar approach at ApeCoin DAO for our AIP process.

Certainly not opposed to continuing grant opportunities, but perhaps with a cap and limited to projects focused entirely on ecosystem development and co-branded public goods. Would love to get this convo started...

AC