

A technical issue has been identified in the GHO integration with the Aave V3 GHO pool and as a consequence, GHO as an asset has been temporarily paused by the Aave Guardians.

The GHO that is minted is not affected and there is no risk to any funds, and all other markets are unaffected and are operating as normal.

The community is already working on a fix that will be proposed as an AIP shortly.