

This looks similar to the $\text{CORR} \times \text{INDEPENDENCE}$ payout that I have proposed (where $\text{INDEPENDENCE} = 1 - \text{correlation with meta model}$). I think two issues with your idea are 1. asymmetric payouts, since losses are not taxed in the same way as gains and 2. an arbitrary threshold which penalises large stakes.