

Have you tried downloading the example files (near upload button)? In the folder, there is a file called `example_signal_upload.csv`. This file contains tickers for the whole validation data since 2013/01/04 - all these historical tickers wouldn't have survivorship bias; these were all the things in our universe at those times. Is this what you need?