

MAV Token & Tokenomics

MAV Token Basics

MAV is the native utility token of the Maverick ecosystem. It is designed primarily to be used for staking, voting, and boosting.

MAV is an ERC-20 token that incorporates LayerZero's Omnichain Fungible Token (OFT) extension, to enable easy bridging of MAV between chains. MAV is currently live on Ethereum mainnet, zkSync Era, Binance Smart Chain, and Base. Contract information can be found here.
