

Given the recent volatility on stablecoins, we wanted to give the community a heads-up that Gauntlet is in touch with community contributors and participants. Action could be required both from on-chain governance and Guardian via emergency because of bad debt risk. We will keep the community informed of recommendations.