

Hello UNI community,

As a long time supporter of this project I have to say this airdrop situation is getting a bit frustrating. They obviously had to make a cut off at some point, partly due to legal reasons such as inside trading.

Now everyone is proposing ways of rewarding current holders with more uni? Isn't the incentive for governance to ensure integrity and stability? Everyone is just asking for more free stuff when in reality they should be focused on the real implications of UNI.