

The PoS stakeing contract will accept inclusion of transactions using gas price other than in ether?

I see that a separated contract can be used, but I would find great if users can include transactions and be paid in any ERC20 token (or at least the token in transfer).

I'm not sure if ERC20 abi is sufficient for this, maybe something more advanced such ERC777.