

Abstract:

The $Ape token is proposed to serve as a symbol of humorous collaboration and deal flow within our decentralized community. While I may not hold BAYC/MAYC tokens, I strongly believe that the potential partnerships that will drive the growth of Apecoin lie within the realms of Web3, AI, Sports, and Finance. My goal is to foster a movement that brings something truly remarkable to our ecosystem, uniting partners in unprecedented ways for business.

Author:

Greetings, esteemed community members! I am the Partnership Dude, equipped with approximately one year of experience in Web3. Although I won't divulge personal details just yet, rest assured, my commitment to partnerships is unwavering. I possess nothing of my own; everything I have has been bestowed upon me. Hence, my devotion lies in forging alliances each and every day.

Motivation:

The current state of collaboration within Apecoin is lackluster, and it is a significant impediment to our progress. Moreover, the untapped potential for growth when real-world businesses intertwine with Apecoin is tremendous. If we can infuse more fun into our collaborations, leveraging the technological prowess of Apecoin DAO, and establish connections with businesses and partners beyond the digital realm, only then can our ecosystem experience exponential growth.

Rationale:

The rationale behind this proposal is simple: let's inject humor into our partnerships. I aspire to lead a movement that amplifies deal flow, connecting the most brilliant minds in Web3, AI, Sports, and Finance. By doing so, we can derive enjoyment from our pursuits while achieving remarkable outcomes.

Specifications:

To be a part of this movement, there are no complicated protocols to follow. If you possess bright ideas and a great sense of humor, you are more than welcome to join. Let's revolutionize the way we engage in partnerships and generate wealth, pioneering a new utility: partnerships themselves. Consider the possibilities:

- Facilitating $100M in deal flow within one year.
- Assembling a community of five thousand partnership dudes within one year.
- And much more fun to follow.

What's in it for DAO members?

- Exclusive access for all community members to participate in this movement.
- Exclusive access to a community of 5,000 funny and driven individuals united by a common purpose: partnerships.

Steps to Implement:

- This proposal aims to garner 200 likes from the community.
- Once approved, we will proceed with necessary implementations.
- The team will be revealed, establishing transparency and trust.
- A dedicated Twitter community will be launched, facilitating communication and updates.
- Subsequent updates and developments will be shared promptly.
- Together, we will embark on a journey of exciting and progressive steps.

Timeline:

The implementation phase is estimated to take 0-6 months, and scaling will occur within 6-12 months.

Overall Cost: This endeavor requires no financial investment; it is driven by our collective passion and dedication.

By presenting this proposal as a birthday gift to everyone, I aim to ignite a spirit of collaboration and camaraderie within our community. Let us seize this opportunity to redefine what partnerships mean to us, foster a culture of fun, and unleash the full potential of Apecoin together.
