Our monthly Index report will bring you the latest updates in a concise, easy to digest way.

Comparing the Avalanche and Arbitrum Indexes, it seems to follow a similar pattern as the previous month. One Index saw substantial growth (our DeFi Index ) taking the lead with an increase of over 36%, while the Avalanche Indexes continued to correct from humongous growth in November. The biggest loser being our Avalanche Gaming NFT Index, dropping by around 39% in the last month.

Let's dive deeper to see what happened in the last 30 days.

Avalanche Gaming NFT Index (-39.63%)

The Avalanche NFT Gaming ecosystem saw the biggest correction, with a decrease of 39% over the past 30 days, a correction was expected after such a substantial increase across all projects in November.

1. Heroes Chained (HEC) -8.1%

HEC is the native currency of Heroes Chained, a real-time fantasy action RPG game.

Although there has been a correction for two months in a row from massive growth in November (+244% ), Heroes Chained recently completed their Treasure Trove Tournament and have partnered with Immutable zkEVM which is exciting news.

2. Battle For Giostone (BFG) -56.6%

BFG is the first Web3 MOBA built for Esports, co-founded by DOTA esports veteran Theeban Siva.

As with the other Gaming NFT projects, BFG has corrected from the 105% increase in November, dropping 56% in the last 30 days.

3. Chikn Egg (EGG) -16.7%

EGG is the governance and utility token of the Chikn NFT gaming ecosystem. Chikn are upgradable NFTs on Avalanche where a user collects eggs and grows their farm.

EGG has continued to see considerable correction from the growth seen in November.

4. Heroes Of NFT (HON) -12.8%

HON is the native utility token of the P2E card game Heroes of NFT. Their big differentiator is staking rewards based on the NFT rarity in $HON and $AVAX. HON is the native utility token of the P2E card game Heroes of NFT. Their big differentiator is staking rewards based on the NFT rarity in $HON and $AVAX.

Again, there has been a continued correction as with all NFT gaming projects in the Index. HON is no exception.

5. Snail trail (SLIME) -26.9%

SLIME is the utility token of the game Snail Trail that lets you race and breed snails.

It is the same story as the rest of the Gaming NFT projects in regards to SLIME's continued price correction from December.

6. Brokk Finance (BRO)

-43.40%

BRO is the governance and utility token of Brokk Finance and is included in every Avalanche index.

BRO also saw a decrease in January. Recently we launched our first LP Strategies which you can check out here. On top of that we are adding volatile pools to our Beta next week!
