

Couple of things come to mind to make this portal better for everyone:

- ability by users to select colour patterns
- ability by users to customise background colour and text appearance
- take in consideration visual disabilities and possible adjustments towards them
- implement the voice reader by human or AI voice without needing to use device functions & sign language in several languages videos translating
- include translate button into the portal
- limit low effort responses
- avoid endorsing any proposals as a DAO official worker