

Abstract

Making official Apecoin DAO server, controlled by Governance Working Group and making it available on Apecoin official website, X account and other places where necessary.

This server came into existence years ago in the the form of Working Group Zero by the first volunteer stewards. As time passed, this unofficially became the one place to go for community engagement after X and forum and is by far the most active channels of communication we have with active users for all kind of activities. This proposal aims to make this unspoken unofficial server into official one.

I dunno why anyone has ever thought of this yet -.-

Team Description

Author is Evil, you already know me.

Team would be GWG Stewards who are already taking care of this server.

Benefit to ApeCoin Ecosystem

There's a large gap here for new people who are trying to explore the DAO, things like X and forums are easily accessible but what about those are dont know how to navigate things properly? Currently there is no official "Join discord " button anywhere and plenty of new comers have to rely on people's invite via DMs or ask on X spaces.

Having a permanent custom code and link for discord and "Join discord " button update on official X account and Apecoin official site would help a lot of people navigate smoothly across communication channels.

As of now its the most popular tool for crypto communities to communicate and engage after X and Telegram.

Platforms and Technologies

Discord: A popular social media chatting service.

Steps to Implement

Upon acceptance, the Ape Foundation representative take control over the discord; Webslinger as the main admin, followed by GWG Stewards and team.

Once done, official links to the discord server will be made available across X and website.

Overall Cost

$0

Assuming the lawyers wont charge 4 dabloons for sensing some sort of illegal activities or going against community guidelines (IKYK), I think copy pasting the link on X and adding a button that directs to the server on official site should cost $0.
