

I am attempting to try neutralisation in order to try improve my MMC but I'm a little confused. The MMC2 announcement talks about neutralising against the metamodel but we don't have access to that right? Then the analysis and tips notebook in the example scripts seems to neutralise the predictions against the features.

Can someone please explain what I'm missing?