

Hello ApeCoin DAO Community,

We want to ensure that every one of our members feels welcome and encouraged to participate in the many discussions taking place here on the forum. As we highlighted in Facilitator Notes #1, it is up to the community to flag content that goes against our Guidelines for Engagement on Discourse, and for all members to do their part to make this a productive, inclusive environment for everyone.

With this said, it's also important to highlight that Facilitators do "reserve the right to remove any content and any user account for any reason at any time" in the pursuit of this goal.

Welcome to the ApeCoin DAO Discourse

- Moderators have special authority; they are responsible for this forum. But so are you. With your help, moderators can be community facilitators, not just janitors or police.
- When you see bad behavior, don't reply. Replying encourages bad behavior by acknowledging it, consumes your energy, and wastes everyone's time. Just flag it. If enough flags accrue, action will be taken, either automatically or by moderator intervention.
- In order to maintain our community, moderators reserve the right to remove any content and any user account for any reason at any time. Moderators do not preview new posts; the moderators and site operators take no responsibility for any content posted by the community.

Thank you for doing your part to keep ApeCoin DAO a welcoming space for thoughtful, productive discussions.

Best regards,

-ApeCoin DAO Community Discourse Facilitators
