

Hey everyone,

Retroactive funding is a critical part to providing valued contributions with fair rewards for their work. This can also be a great way for contributors to test an idea and see how it pans out—sometimes this justifies monetary support from the DGP.

The dYdX Grants Program encourages discussions related to retroactive funding, and are setting this up to highlight retroactive grants and to seek feedback.

Looking forward to a productive conversation!