

Deployments

Deployments are server-side representations of actions. They keep essential metadata required for remote orchestration, including when, where, and how a workflow should run. Deployments transform workflows from functions that need to be manually activated to API-managed entities capable of being triggered remotely.

Previous Tasks Next Workspaces

Last updated 2 months ago