

Hi someone has stolen my uni claim from my wallet 400 uni was taken out of my atomic wallet that I used through metamask that's like 13k I have all the information and proof of this address still being used and still enters my wallet I have reached out to atomic wallet and they cannot do anything about this I dobt know how this was possible I do not use or share my mnemonic phrase or private key does anyone have any idea how I can possibly get this person busted sure upsets me to loose so much value as I could have used for pooling man this is really a bumner please send help sorry to cry about this but in my age I'm really starting to feel old and retirement is coming soon thanks for reading if anyone can help please contact me here