

Now that proposal 1 has come and gone I have set up this forum post as a place for us all to be able to come together and discuss/provide feedback on the proposal, any potential issues faced and any changes that could be made going forward to help better align the community for any future proposals going forward.

Please try and keep conversation polite and on topic