

Hello all. I develop and research automated security assessment tools to enhance smart contract security.

How about adding a security category in here?

I already know about the existence of a security community like secureeth or ethereum-magicians

But I'd suggest security category for sharing the research idea and findings.

Thanks.