

How are you? I wanted to reach out and introduce myself and share with you what is happening with us and coming up at our summits at AIBC (www.AIBC.world); we are the most trusted global leader in events and media production, dedicated to driving emerging technologies forward. Our mission is to connect experts, investors, developers, and enthusiasts in AI, blockchain, XR, Metaverse, gaming, NFT, IoT, Smart Cities, Web 3, crypto, and other cutting-edge fields at our summits. We host six summits globally, and they keep growing! If you're interested, I'm leaving our event schedule below. I'd love to have you attend our event. If someone would be interested in speaking about what you have coming up, we are open.
