

I want to gauge the interest of active forum/governance members in participating in a monthly live call to discuss recent developments and ideas within the Arbitrum community. If you're interested, please engage in this thread, and we can initiate the process if there is sufficient interest.