

Reinvigorate early members in the ApeCoin Dao.

Rationale

If someone joined 12 months or more ago, they were early in ApeCoin Dao. An anniversary could be given some basic reward ranging from a POAP to claim to something more significant.

They may not have been in the forum in over 6 months. I wasn't, but that doesn't mean they wouldn't consider getting back involved. After all I did.

It is about commitment, about turning something old into something new. There is a Chris Rock comedy skit on this theme.

For example, what could be done or connected with those with their anniversaries in the forum today?
