

Assignment statement

An assignment statement moves a value into the specified target.

An assignment statement consists of a value followed by an equals sign (=) and an expression. After the assignment, the value of the value is changed to the value of the expression.

6.1 Let statement 6.3 lvalue