Endorsed Delegates Code of Conduct

Please respond to the questions below starting from the date that you first onboarded to become an Endorsed Delegate.

- Vote participation rate (if any):
- Evidence of responsiveness to the dYdX community (if any):
- The reasoning for any proposal, vote, or decision made in connection with being an Endorsed Delegate (if any):
- Conflicts of interest (if any):

Why do you want to be an Endorsed Delegate and why should DYDX/stkDYDX holders delegate to you?

[Motivation for becoming an Endorsed Delegate and vision for the future of the dYdX protocol and/or its governance, such as improving an aspect of the dYdX protocol, raising viewpoints from an underrepresented group, etc.]

How will you connect with and contribute to the dYdX community and governance?

[What are you going to do to advance the dYdX community and governance, how will you communicate your views, how will you connect with community members, applicable background knowledge or skills, etc.]

Additional Information

[Please include any additional information.]

I confirm that the information above is accurate and up to date as of the start of the current epoch and I will immediately update this Profile and Pitch in the event of a material change.

I have read and agree to abide by the Endorsed Delegates Code of Conduct.

I have completed and scored /10 on the Endorsed Delegate Self Assessment. Please find my Self Assessment linked here:

Transparency and Accountability

Once a dYdX community member onboards as an Endorsed Delegate they will be added to the Endorsed Delegate tracker:
<https://dune.com/queries/1198216>

The Endorsed Delegate tracker provides the dYdX community with the following details so they can make a better-informed decision on which addresses they can potentially delegate to:

- on-chain vote participation
- DYDX and stkDYDX balance
- total delegated voting power
- total voting power

Note: Endorsed Delegates with 0 proposing and voting power will not appear in the Endorsed Delegate tracker.
