

The Signals validation metrics given on the website are calculated after your predictions are neutralized to their features. It is not possible to replicate locally.