

Can I store very important private data on the Aztec network? And ensure that this private data will not be obtained by others?

I want to create a smart contract that can send confidential information to ensure that this confidential information will not be obtained by a third party. Aztec seems to be the platform I need.