

We are posting here as a final post for the time being on the OP Governance forums.

This time will serve us over the spring in order to reflect on this past year of work on optimism network.

Our plan is to continuing working towards our dreams of educating other creators about blockchain scaling technology and public goods.

Stay Optimistic!