

Hi community.

I'm struggling with some points, why users use DeFi lending protocols? What they do with this assets, if they should have an available balance to lock and get a loan in another?

I just understand this point in one case, user get a loan, then go to another protocol, use farming or joining to farming pools, stake this tokens/coins.

What can be else?