The dYdX Chain has officially launched

Yesterday, October 26, at 17:00 UTC, dYdX Chain Validators created the Genesis block of the dYdX Chain.

The dYdX Operations subDAO public front-end for bridging is set to go live on October 30, 2023 (subject to official confirmation)

Pay attention to the announcement on Monday 30th October and for more information about how to bridge.

We recommend that the dYdX community refrain from bridging until the dYdX Operations SubDAO public bridge front end is live

Read the dYdX Chain Genesis blog for further details and insights about the Post Genesis stages:

Alpha - Bridging, Staking and Security

Beta - Trading Enabled with no rewards
