Thank Ape is giving 5 $ape reward just for filling their Sensemaking Survey, it's only available through march so I'm guessing as time will pass there will be more of such survey rewards.

Fill the survey using my link here :Welcome!

Filling the survey with necessary requirement and RTing about it will give you 5 $ape within 2 weeks.

Step #3

A very well known contribution, climbing the ranks of discourse trust level. Rewards range from 2-10-25-50 $ape depending on your trust level. Interacting with this post and many others throughout the forums will help you increase your trust level. Rising to trust level 2 is easy, Trust level 3 requires time and dedication and Trust level 4 is only available via staff members.

Learn what to do in order to climb certain levels by here:Understanding Discourse Trust Levels

Step #4

Attending twitter spaces and Reposting the tweet.

It's a long way with this but you will for sure learn new things about the community via attending these twitter spaces by community members.

Follow them on X for easy navigation:
