

I come to you today with a very important proposal surrounding a certain individual: Chris Blec.

Brother Blec is no doubt a very prominent figure in the DeFi community, thanks to his (warm)takes and skeptical attitude. Say what you want about him, but I think it would benefit all of us if he was gone.(Especially if you are an underage dev) Thankfully, Blec has given us a wonderful opportunity to make this happen: just give him 50 million dollars. With the Uniswap treasury holding almost \$4B, and considering even our lord and savior Hayden Adams has voiced his disdain for Mr. Blec, I propose we go ahead and give him the $50M in UNI tokens.
