

Hey! Could someone please clarify who takes what risk on Aave? As an example, if there's a liquidity crunch / lots of borrowers default, is the Aave protocol bearing the risk or is it the lenders?

Yes, Aave has mechanisms in place to mitigate the risk (reserve factor, LTV etc.) but I'm curious as to who ultimately bears the risk.

Thanks!