

After the V4 mainnet is officially launched, is it possible to add spot trading pairs, and increase the mapping of real assets to the chain for transactions. If so, what technical issues need to be addressed and what are the risks?