

Some assets have low utilisation. For example on Aave V1, only 1.91% of $1.4m Enjin Coin is being used.

Given that those assets are secured by the Safety Module, my intuition says that these assets are a burden on the system. The Safety Module could be securing $1.4m worth of a higher-demand asset. It follows that such assets should be delisted.

Thoughts?