

A demo of first-ever AI-enabled in a Solidity smart contract running on ETH side chain. An image is being uploaded into a decentralized social network running on a blockchain. Once the image is uploaded into the blockchain file storage, a precompiled SmartContract analyzes it using Resnet50 neural network, and rejects it if it contains an image of a cat.