We are thrilled to announce that Cryptocito, a luminary in the Cosmos ecosystem and Co-Founder of both Stakecito and Cosmoverse, has joined Composable as an advisor. As we continue to extend IBC to new ecosystems, Cryptocito serves as an invaluable champion in educating communities on the vital role and transformative power of IBC. This strategic alignment not only amplifies our influence but also fortifies our standing within the Cosmos community. Furthermore, this alignment allows Cryptocito to further extend his reach and platform to new ecosystems.

Who is Cryptocito?

Cryptocito is a name synonymous with in-depth research and insightful content in the Cosmos ecosystem. Through his dedicated YouTube channel, Cryptocito shares his findings, tutorials, explanatory videos, and enriching interviews with core protocols, developers, and thought-leaders within the Cosmos and beyond.

As the Co-Founder of Cosmoverse, the largest Cosmos ecosystem conference of the year, Cryptocito has been instrumental in bringing together industry leaders, developers, and enthusiasts from various ecosystems to discuss the future of blockchain technology.
