

The online availability threshold is quite unforgiving at the moment. As a validator, I must move to upgraded hardware. What is the process for doing so? Do I need to create a new validator and re-delegate bonded stake? Or is it possible to copy the validator configuration? Please explain with commands. Your enigmacli documentation is good enough but this isn't covered.