Uniswap is often bringing something new to the table. Last time, it was the V3 pools with “[concentrated liquidity

](<https://medium.com/@brokkfinance/the-ultimate-guide-to-concentrated-liquidity-2f86f1639d56>)” that allowed providing liquidity only within specific price ranges. And while it has many advantages, it also makes life hard for LPs for whom it isn't easy to be profitable. That's why we build the LP strategies, to make their experience better and more profitable.

But Uniswap is preparing a new version — V4 — and it is a pretty big deal.
