

I am using the following code to send value with a specified gas limit:

```
recipient.call{value: amount, gas: gasLimit}("");
```

As I plan to deploy this code on Arbitrum One, which has a different gas calculation model compared to Ethereum, what adjustments or considerations should I make to ensure proper behavior? Are there specific guidelines for setting the gas parameter in call for networks like Arbitrum One?