

Celestia Modular Meetup program

Welcome to the ultimate guide for Modular Meetup organizers! This collection of resources is designed for those enthusiastic about fostering grassroots Modular Meetups with support from Celestia around the world.

Program description

The Celestia Modular Meetup Program aims to empower meetup organizers, providing education and support, and encouraging collaboration within the Web3 ecosystem. This rapidly growing community has already achieved incredible success with the first Modular Meetup in Lisbon, and will grow from there.

Join fellow enthusiasts, engage in enlightening discussions, and make the most of the insightful resources provided. These resources are designed to serve as a go-to playbook for meetup organizers, especially when starting your journey.

Important info

Celestia.org Community Code of Conduct

The purpose of our Community Code of Conduct is to foster an inclusive, welcoming, and supportive environment for everyone participating in Celestia community events. We're all here to learn from each other, expand our skillsets, and enjoy a positive experience together.

All meetup attendees, speakers, sponsors, and volunteers, including the event organizing team, are kindly asked to adhere to the following Code of Conduct. Organizers will respectfully enforce this code throughout the event. We genuinely appreciate the cooperation of all participants in maintaining a safe and empowering space for everyone.
