

PROPOSAL NAME:

Elect a Chairman inside Special Council

PROPOSAL CATEGORY:

Process

ABSTRACT:

We need a person to lead and be responsible for the direction of the DAO. This person would be responsible for overseeing the direction of the DAO during their term. This person would serve as the primary point of contact for gathering, distributing, and managing information & roles within the DAO.

BENEFIT TO APECOIN ECOSYSTEM:

- Direction for the ApeCoin DAO community
- Greater responsibility within the Special Council
- Increased communication from the Special Council

STEPS TO IMPLEMENT & TIMELINE:

To implement the new governance process, we would appoint a lead individual from within the Special Council to be responsible for overseeing the direction of the DAO during their term. This person would serve as the primary point of contact for gathering, distributing, and managing information and roles within the DAO.

The process for electing a chairman would mirror the current Special Council election rules, cadence and processes. Nominations for the chairman position would be accepted by the community directly from standing Special Council members. This new process would commence during the election cycle following the approval of this AIP, and would continue until the DAO decides to make further amendments.

Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) for this step include

Timely commencement of the election process within the designated cycle.

Nomination of suitable candidates by standing Special Council members.

Transparency and fairness in the election process.

Personnel Requirements:

An individual to serve as the lead responsible for overseeing the direction of the DAO.

ApeCoin Special Council members to nominate candidates for the chairman position.

Expectations from the Ape Foundation:

Support for the election process and any necessary amendments to the governance framework.

Ensuring transparency and fairness in the election process.

Other Resources Needed:

Clear communication channels for gathering and disseminating information.

Documentation for the community, outlining the updated election process.

Timing Details:

The election process would commence during the election cycle following the approval of this AIP.

Milestones include the initiation of nominations and the completion of the election process according to the expected timeline.

OVERALL COST:

No additional cost to the DAO.
