

Hi,

Is there a dashboard that covers Signals data? I was looking for a place to download the csv with the Signals' model performance (basically corr, mmc and round) but I could not find one like those available for Classic.

Also it seems that Numerapi for Signals does not have the method "round_model_performances" which I use to download my submission for the Classic tournament.

What do you use to download and analyze Signals submission?

Thanks