

Some one asked me about to provide a definition of a rollup - here is what I came up with rollups can be loosely defined as solutions where transactions are put on chain but other things like transaction processing and state storage may be offchain

Good or bad ?