

Hello UniSwap Community!

As a team of builders with DeFi experience, we would like to help UniSwap grow further. We are very open especially for projects related to Web App development with great UX, as we have already collected experience with one of the leading DeFi protocols in this area. Could you give me some input on where and how we can get more involved with the UniSwap community? Would be greatly appreciated!