

The reddit suggested i bring this question over here please move it if its in the wrong category.

What servers do you run the test code on?

So i want to run the test code on a server but found out that vultr apparently doesnt support SGX what other affordable server hosts can i use? Can you guys give us how much you pay and what host? Alternatively if there are work arounds id love to hear that as well.