

As the original liquidity mining is coming to an end in just three days, we should start the discussion whether to continue, modify or end the liquidity mining. As it stands, I believe we should continue the liquidity mining to attract the existing and more capital so that Aave remains number one in crypto lending space.